his feast. This is said to be the same kind of a raven that fed the prophet Elijah. His wisdom seems almost of a supernatural order.

It is said that the cry of an ostrich is like the roar of a lion, and the Hottentots often run from it in fright until they see the bird.

The ostrich is a generous layer. Sixty eggs will be found in and around a single nest. One of these eggs is equal to twenty-four hen's eggs. The Hottentots and Bushmen cook an ostrich egg by putting one end in a hot fire. Through an opening in the other they stir the contents, putting in salt and pepper, making a very palatable omelet.

It is never safe to drop any article when walking near a covey of ostriches. The ostrich will eat anything, seeming apparently to have no sense of taste. A story is told of a young girl who was visiting a zoo where a large ostrich snatched her kid gloves, which were rolled into a ball, and ate them. The next day the girl returned with a family contribution of a half dozen pairs of gloves, all of which were as readily swallowed.

While the ostrich has absolutely no brain—see Job for authority—it has vicious propensities that show some sort of wicked intelligence. Some Cape Town people had a fowl fitting in a special coop near an ostrich kraal. The bird drooped and grew thin. It was watched and seen to peer through the slats of its coop, curious to watch its neighbors, the ostriches. Every time it put its head out it received a kick from its neighbor, and would soon have died had it not been removed.

A meek-looking male ostrich stood about with its consort looking so dejected that some visitors remarked that it must be henpecked.

"Oh," laughed their host, "he is hen-kicked," and they soon saw him receive a staggering blow from his gentle spouse which sent him with drooping feathers into a corner.

Old Lightning belonged to an ostrich farm at San Diego, and was a magnificent bird. He acquired his name from the rapidity with which he could pluck a lighted cigar or pipe from a visitor's mouth or remove his watch and chain or any ornament he could discover. The noiseless manner in which he could steal up behind one and then nip some personal property was remarkable. He was a natural-born thief. Once he snatched all the flowers off a young lady's hat. At another time he attempted to swallow a diamond earring, but as it was fast in its owner's ear he could not manage it.

Old Lightning's greatest feat was swallowing a lighted meerschaum pipe which he had snatched from a visitor's mouth. The keeper had seen him and caught him around the neck, and the pipe was exhumed, the tobacco still burning.—Detroit Free Press.

FOREIGN NOTES OF REAL INTEREST.

Ten war vessels of the British navy were condemned last month as unfit for service, and ordered sold.

The tercentenary of Isaac Walton will be celebrated by angling clubs all over Great Britain on August 9 next.

Three lots on the corner of Oxford street and Oxford Circus, London, brought at auction the other day a price equal to $115 a square foot.

A suit in the British Chancery Court, begun in 1741, was concluded a few days ago. A sum of £14,000 was fought about, and the Government duties and legal fees nearly cover the entire sum, with the exception of a few pounds.

A constant and large increase is noted in the output of the oil wells of the Caspian region. About 3,000 tons are exported every working day of the year from Batoum alone, and the exports of last year were 63,633 tons in excess of those of the previous year.

New Zealand's Labor Department has begun to publish the Journal of Commerce and Labor, a monthly journal to contain official reports on the state of the labor markets throughout colony and Australasia in general. It will be distributed free to public bodies, trades unions, and all applicants.

It is believed by the engineer and official of the enterprise that the Manchester Ship Canal will be opened for traffic along its entire length, from Liverpool to Manchester, by next February or March. If the practical completion is retarded beyond that date it will likely be by legal rather than engineering difficulties.

About 30,000 couples have been divorced in France during the past five years, and now a law has just been read in the Chamber of Deputies for the first time designed to make a severance of the matrimonial bonds much easier still. It provides that a mere judicial separation can be changed to a definite divorce after the lapse of three years on the demand of either party, plaintiff or respondent.

Russian Jews have settled in South Africa, especially in the division of the Outdshoon, in large numbers, and, according to the Cape Argus, are among the most prosperous colonists. They have been naturalized and have acquired land, and, from the tenor of the Argus' remarks, written in relation to a report that further detachments of these people were to be sent there, it would seem they are desirable immigrants, and more will be welcomed.

Dr. Bowdler Sharpe suggested in a recent lecture on the geographical distribution of birds before the Royal Institution of London that there was once a great continent, with its center at the South Pole, now submerged under 2000 fathoms of ocean. It embraced, he said, South America, Madagascar, Mauritius, New Zealand and Australia; and this is explained the existence of the cognate struthious birds

Bishop, Editor; published monthly, at $2 per annum, devoted to the religious and educational interests of these islands, as also a record of political and other current events. Sample copies mailed to any address. A limited number of advertisements inserted at reasonable rates.

The Hawaiian Annual now in its Nineteenth year, and acknowledged not only as the best authority on all information pertaining to the islands that residents should know and strangers invariably ask, but the only reference book of Hawaiian statistics, and annual record of current and remembrance events. There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imports in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's

Tasteless

Preparation

Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.
